

Junior Rancheras at Camp Arnaz

The Junior Rancheras Program at Camp Arnaz is an exclusive experience for Juniors and Cadettes to build leadership skills based around horsemanship that they can grow into throughout their years of being a Girl Scout. The Girl Scouts of California's Central Coast council is pleased to announce this new program starting in the 2021-2022 Girl Scout year.

There is a 2 part application process to be accepted (written questionnaire, and in person meeting). If you are approved to become a Junior Ranchera a $25 annual fee is due. Junior Rancheras will receive a water bottle and patch.

Interested Girl Scouts should email info@girlscoutscoc.org with the following information:

- Name (first and last)
- Troop number
- Level
- Email
- Phone number
- Date of birth

The application process will begin on Sept. 1, 2021.

