

AMENDED AND RESTATED BYLAWS

ARTICLE I – CORPORATE IDENTITY

Section 1.1. Name. The name of this corporation shall be Girl Scouts of California's Central Coast (hereinafter the "Council," "GSCCC," or the "Corporation"). The Girl Scouts of California's Central Coast is a nonprofit corporation organized under the statutes of the State of California and recognized as tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Section 1.2. Mission. Girl Scouting builds girls of courage, confidence and character, who make the world a better place. Girl Scouts of California's Central Coast makes it easy, meaningful and fun for girls and volunteers to grow as leaders.

Section 1.3. Purpose. The Council purpose shall be defined in the Articles of Incorporation and to make available the girls under its jurisdiction within the state of California the program, practices, and standards of Girl Scouting as offered by the Girl Scouts of the United States of America, referred to as GSUSA.

ARTICLE II – CORPORATE STRUCTURE

Section 2.1. Corporate Structure. The Council is a directorship corporation and all corporate rights of the Council rest with the Board of Directors of the Council (the "Board"). The Board is self-perpetuating in the manner provided for in these bylaws ("Bylaws").

Section 2.2. Principal Place of Operations and Business Office. The principal place of operations and business office is the Corporate Headquarters, 1500 Palma Drive, Suite 110, Ventura, CA 93003. The Corporation may have other offices in California as the Board may designate or as the affairs of the Corporation may require from time to time.

Section 2.3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Council shall end on September 30 of each year.

Section 2.4. Membership in the Girl Scout Movement. The Council shall register members of the Girl Scout Movement according to the policies and directives of the Girl Scouts of the United States of America ("GSUSA").

ARTICLE III – BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 3.1. Members of the Board of Directors. There shall be a Board of Directors that shall consist of no fewer than 10 and no more than 15 members (each such member, a “Director”), including Board Officers (as defined below).

Section 3.2. General Powers and Responsibilities. The Board shall have power over and control and ultimate responsibility for the business affairs and all matters of the Council, including:

- a. Governance Accountability: provide strategic leadership and direction, stewardship of Girl Scouting in California’s Central Coast; prepare for and attend all Board and assigned Committee meetings; and carry out the duties assigned to the Board pursuant to these Bylaws.
- b. Executive Leadership: employ, supervise, evaluate and remove the Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) of the Council.
- c. Stewardship: promote the Girl Scouts mission and brand and ensure the achievement of the Girl Scout Mission.
- d. Policy Development and Oversight: establishes and monitors the enforcement of major policy matters.
- e. Financial Oversight: preserve the financial integrity of the Council by reviewing financial records; adopting policies and guidelines that govern the acquisition and allocation of resources to support strategic priorities; approving the annual budget; develop internal controls over financial transactions and approve and support fund development plans.
- f. Strategic Leadership: provide strategic leadership and direction; with the assistance of the CEO, formulate major strategic thinking, long and short-term goals, and vision statements for the council as a whole.
- g. Fundraising: raise funds for the Council’s operations and properties.

Section 3.3. Qualifications. All Directors shall be members of the Girl Scout Movement and residents of or work within California’s Central Coast.

Section 3.3.1. Elected from Slate. All Directors shall be elected from a slate of nominees prepared by the Board Development Committee in accordance with the process prescribed in Section 8.2, BOARD DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE of these Bylaws.

Section 3.4. Terms of Office. The term of office for a Director shall be two years, or until his or her successor is elected and assumes office or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal. The term of office shall begin at the Annual Meeting of the Board as defined in Article IV, Section 4.1, ANNUAL MEETING. The election of new Directors to fill open seats shall take place at the board meeting in the first quarter of the fiscal year to provide sufficient time for new Directors to complete an orientation process prior to beginning their term of office at the Annual Meeting. Incumbent Directors shall be re-elected at the Annual Meeting.

Section 3.4.1. Staggered Terms. Terms of office shall be staggered so that approximately one-half of the terms expire each year.

Section 3.4.2. Consecutive Terms. Director shall not serve more than three consecutive terms. Upon serving three consecutive terms, a Director may not be reelected to the Board for a period of at least one year before being considered for election to another term, unless elected to an Officer position.

Section 3.4.3. Full Term. For purposes of this Section, a Director who has served more than one-half of a term shall be considered to have served a full term.

Section 3.5. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board that occurs prior to the end of an elected term shall be filled for the remaining portion of that term by a majority vote of the Board then in office, except as follows. If the Board determines it is in the best interests of GSCCC not to fill a vacancy, a vacancy will not be filled; provided, the total number of unfilled Board vacancies does not exceed the minimum number of Directors (10) required by these Bylaws, and the Board records this decision at a Board meeting. The candidate(s) for any vacancy shall be nominated by the Board Development Committee. Any Director so elected shall begin his or her term upon election by the Board and shall hold office for the remaining portion of the term of that directorship or until his or her successor is elected and assumes office in accordance with the process prescribed in Section 8.1 BOARD DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE of these Bylaws.

Section 3.6. Resignations. Any Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Chairperson or Secretary of the Board. A resignation sent via E-Mail to either the Chairperson or Secretary of the Board is effective written notice. The resignation of any Director shall take effect at the time specified therein and the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 3.7. Compensation of the Board of Directors. Directors shall serve without compensation except that out-of-pocket expenses may be reimbursed according to the policies and guidelines for expense reimbursement as established by the Board of Directors.

Section 3.8. Removal of Directors. Any Director may be removed with or without cause at any time by a vote of a majority of the Directors then in office at a special meeting of the Directors called for that purpose. Notice of such special meeting shall be given in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 4.4 NOTICES of these Bylaws.

~~Section~~ 3.8.1. Declaration of Vacancy. When any Director fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Board and such absences are unexcused, the Board shall declare the directorship vacant.

Section 3.8.2. Removal from Office. If a Director who is also serving as a Board Officer is removed as provided in this Section, the Director shall also be removed from such Board Office by virtue of his or her removal from the Board.

ARTICLE IV – MEETINGS AND QUORUM OF THE BOARD

Section 4.1. Annual Meeting. Within the third quarter of the fiscal year, the Annual Meeting of the Board shall be held for the purpose of installation of new Directors, re-election of incumbent Directors, election of Board Officers of the Council and any other business or transactions as shall come before the Board.

Section 4.2. Regular Meetings. There shall be at least four meetings of the Board each year, one of which may be the Annual Meeting. The meetings shall be held at such time and place as the Board may determine. From time to time, meeting sites shall be moved throughout the six counties comprising the council at the discretion of the Board.

Section 4.3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the Board Chairperson or upon written request of 8 (eight) Directors pursuant to these Bylaws.

Section 4.4. Notices.

Section 4.4.1. Regular Meetings. Written notice stating the place, date, and hour of any Annual or regular meetings shall be given not less than 14 days prior to any such Annual or regular meeting date.

Section 4.4.2. Special Meetings. Notice stating the place, date, hour, and purpose of a special meeting shall be given (i) in the case of notice provided in person or by telephone, facsimile, email, other electronic transmission or any other form of wire or wireless communication electronic means, not less than 48 hours prior to any such special meeting date, and (ii) in the case of notice provided by mail or private carrier, not less than five days prior to any such special meeting date.

Section 4.4.3. Manner of Notice. Any notice not otherwise required to be written pursuant to subsection (a) of this Section but required by law or by these Bylaws to be given may be given in person; by telephone, facsimile, E-mail, other electronic transmission or any other form of wire or wireless communication; by mail or private carrier.

Section 4.5. Quorums.

Section 4.5.1. Regular Meetings. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by these Bylaws, a majority of the Directors shall be required to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any regular Board meeting, and the act of a majority of the Directors present at any meeting, at which a quorum is present, shall be deemed the action of the Board.

Section 4.5.2. Special Board Meetings. Special board meetings require a quorum of two-thirds of all duly qualified and seated Directors.

Section 4.5.3. Amendments of the Bylaws. Amendments to these Bylaws require a vote of not less than two-thirds of all duly qualified Directors.

Section 4.6. Board Meetings Other than in Person.

Section 4.6.1. Meetings by Telephone. Directors of the Board may participate in a meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by which all persons participating can hear each other and be heard at the same time. Such participation will constitute presence in person at the meeting.

Section 4.6.2. Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board may be taken without a meeting if each Director, in writing, either (i) votes for such action, (ii) votes against such action, or (iii) abstains from voting and waives the right to demand that notice of a meeting be given or that a meeting be held. E-Mail transmission of such actions constitutes "in writing" for purposes of this section. Action is taken under this subsection only if two-thirds of the Directors then in office affirmatively vote for such action. Any action taken under this subsection has the same effect as action taken at a meeting of the Board and may be described as such in any document. Any action taken under this subsection will be effective when the last writing necessary to effect the action is received by the Chairperson unless the writings describing the action taken set forth a different date. Any writing described in this subsection may be delivered by hard copy or electronic facsimile. Any signed written instruments pursuant to actions with regard to this subsection shall be filed with the minutes of the Board.

Section 4.6.3. Presumption of Assent. A Director who is present at a meeting of the Board at which action on any Board matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless:

- a. such Director's dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting;
- b. the Director files a written dissent to the action with the person acting as the Secretary of the meeting before the adjournment of the meeting or forwards such dissent by registered mail to the Board Secretary within 24 hours of adjournment of the meeting.

Section 4.7. Proxies. Voting by proxies shall not be permitted.

ARTICLE V – BOARD OFFICERS

Section 5.1. Board Officers. The Board shall have the following officers selected from among its members pursuant to Section 5.2 ELECTION OF BOARD OFFICERS of these Bylaws: Chairperson of the Board, Vice Chairman, Vice Chairman of Membership, Secretary of the Board, and Treasurer of the Board, hereinafter referred to as “Board Offices” and “Board Officers.”

Section 5.2. Election of Board Officers. The Chairperson, Vice Chair, Vice Chairman of Membership, Secretary, Treasurer, shall all be members of the Board and elected by the members of the Board at the Annual Meeting from a single slate of candidates provided by the Board Development Committee.

Section 5.3. Terms of Board Officers.

Section 5.3.1. Full Terms. The term of office of each Board Officer shall be two years, or until his or her successor is elected and assumes office or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal. A Board Officer may serve no more than three consecutive terms of any single office. The Chairperson may serve a maximum of three consecutive terms in the office of Chair, regardless of the number of consecutive terms served in other offices. Terms of office shall begin at the close of the Annual Meeting of the Board.

Section 5.3.2. Partial Terms. A person who has served more than one-half of a term as a Board Officer shall be considered to have served a full term for the purpose of determining eligibility to serve additional terms.

Section 5.4. Vacancies. If a vacancy occurs in any Board Office, other than that of Chairperson, a replacement shall be nominated by the Board Development Committee and elected by the Board to serve from the time of election until the next Annual Meeting. The election shall occur at the next regular Board meeting following the vacancy; or, in the case of exigent circumstances, before the next regular Board meeting. In the case of a vacancy in the office of Chairperson, the Vice Chair shall succeed to serve the unexpired term.

Section 5.5. Removal of a Board Officer. A Board Officer may be removed from office with or without cause at any time by a vote of a majority of the Directors then in office at a special meeting of the Directors called for that purpose. Notice of such special meeting shall be given in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 4.4 NOTICES of these Bylaws.

Section 5.5.1. Declaration of Vacancy. When any Officer fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Board and such absences are unexcused, the Board shall declare the office vacant.

Section 5.6. Duties of the Board Officers.

Section 5.6.1. Chairperson. The Chairperson shall preside at all meetings of the Board; be responsible for ensuring that the direction and the actions given by the Board are carried into effect; appoint a secretary pro-tem in the absence of the Secretary; an ex-officio member, with vote, of all Board-appointed committees and task groups with the exception of Board Development Committee; and perform other related duties as are prescribed by these bylaws or the parliamentary authority, and/or assigned by the Board.

Section 5.6.2. Vice Chair. The Vice Chair shall assist the Chairperson in duties as assigned; perform the duties of the Chairperson in the event of temporary absence or disability; succeed to the Chairperson upon completion by the Chairperson of his/her term; and in the event of a vacancy in the office of Chairperson occurring before expiration of the Chairperson's full term, succeed upon that event or vacancy; and perform other related duties as are prescribed by these Bylaws or the parliamentary authority, and/or assigned by the Chairperson or the Board.

Section 5.6.3. Vice Chairperson of Membership. No Director of GSCCC shall have any personal liability for monetary damages to GSCCC or its members for breach of his or her fiduciary duty as a Director, except that this provision shall not eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director to GSCCC or its members for monetary damages for: (a) any breach of the Director's duty of loyalty to GSCCC or its members; (b) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (c) voting for or assenting to a distribution in violation of applicable law or the articles of incorporation if it is established that the Director did not perform his or her duties in compliance with applicable law, provided that the personal liability of a Director in this circumstance shall be limited to the amount of the distribution which exceeds what could have been distributed without violation of applicable law or the Articles of Incorporation; or (d) any transaction from which the Director directly or indirectly derives an improper personal benefit. Nothing contained in these Bylaws shall be construed to deprive any Director of his or her right to all defenses ordinarily available to a Director nor shall anything in these Bylaws be construed to deprive any Director of any right he or she may have for contribution from any other Directors or other person.

ARTICLE XIV – GENERAL STANDARDS OF CONDUCT FOR DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Section 14.1. Discharge of Duties. Each Director or Board Officer shall discharge his or her duties in good faith, with the care a prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and in a manner the Director or Board Officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the Council.

Section 14.2. Reliance on Information, Reports, Etc. In discharging duties, a Director or Board Officer is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by (a) one or more Board Officers or employees of the Council whom the Director or Board Officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; (b) legal counsel, a public accountant, or another person as to matters the Director or Board Officer reasonably believes are within such person's professional or expert competence; or (c) in the case of a Director, a committee of the Board of which the Director is not a member if the Director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.

Section 14.3. Unwarranted Reliance. A Director or Board Officer is not acting in good faith if the Director or officer has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes otherwise permitted reliance unwarranted.

Section 14.4. Nondiscrimination Policy. The Corporation is an equal opportunity employer and adopts a policy of nondiscrimination as recognized by the federal laws and laws of the State of Colorado.

Section 14.5. Conflicts of Interest. The Board shall maintain a policy regarding conflicts of interest, which shall require that each Director sign a document indicating any conflict and or potential conflict with his or her service on the Board. Conflicts of Interest will be reviewed and presented to the Board for approval by the Audit Committee.

ARTICLE XV – AMENDMENTS

Section 15.1. Amendments. The Board may amend the Council's Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws to include or omit any provision that could be lawfully included or omitted. Any number of amendments, or an entire revision or restatement of the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, either may be submitted and voted upon at a single meeting of the Board and be adopted at such meeting, a quorum being present, upon receiving the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of all duly qualified Directors. Any proposed amendments shall be presented to the Directors not less than 30 days prior to the meeting at which action to amend the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws is to be taken by the Board. The Board shall also post all proposed amendments to the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws on its website and/or provide through any other means of communication, to the Board's Standing Committees at least seven (7) days prior to the meeting at which action to amend the Article of Incorporation or Bylaws is to be taken by the Board.
