

GSCCC Be Wild Be Free SWAPS Charm Program

An At-Home Variation

GSCCC Be Wild Be Free SWAPS Charm Program (At Home)

This program provides girls and families a fun and interesting way to engage with a Girl Scout tradition.

- This is already a Council's Own Charm under the Be Wild Be Free Patch
- D/B/J/C/S/A must complete all the required activities

Program Outline

SWAPS Charm

Materials:

- Computer
- Internet access
- SWAP materials
- SWAP holder materials

Part 1. Learn about Girl Scout SWAPS. Use the internet to answer the questions below.

- What are the origins of SWAPS?
- What is the idea behind SWAPS?
- Why do Girl Scouts give each other SWAPS?
- What is the etiquette for trading SWAPS?

Part 2. Make a SWAP

- Make a SWAP representing your family, including your pets.
- Use items you already have at home. Use the internet (Pinterest or Google) for ideas.
- Create a video showing other girls how to make your SWAP. Send your video to media@girlscoutsgccc.org.

Part 3. SWAP holder

Come up with a way to hold all your SWAPS. This will come in handy as you attend more Girl Scout events and get more SWAPS. It can be a hat, a banner, a jacket, or any other handy way you devise. Use the internet to find ideas. At your next big Girl Scout event, bring SWAPS to share with your sister Girl Scouts.
