FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 8, 2018

Ventura, CA — Girl Scouts of California's Central Coast is grieving a community tragedy that happened last night, on November 7, in Thousand Oaks, CA involving a mass shooting at Borderline Bar and Grill, claiming 12 lives. During this tragedy, our hearts go out to all of the victims impacted by this difficult time.

Girl Scouts of California's Central Coast rallies around the community to support all involved and impacted. GSCCC would like to thank the Ventura County Sheriff's Department for their dedication and responsiveness during this time of need. Unfortunately, Sargent Ron Helus, a 29-year veteran lost his life serving those in need, he is a true hero. GSCCC thanks you for your commitment to our community. GSCCC also wants to thank Los Robles Hospital for helping all of the victims and their families.
