

Applications Now Open for the Triennial Juliette Low Seminar (JLS)

Are your young adult members (18-30 years old) interested in building on leadership skills and connecting with WAGGGS and our global sisterhood? This may be an opportunity for them!

GSUSA is looking for representatives to attend this year's Juliette Low Seminar (JLS). Each triennium, the World Association of Girl Guides & Girl Scouts (WAGGGS) hosts this seminar to help young women build friendships across borders, step outside their comfort zones, and learn leadership practices and mindsets they need to bring positive social change to their world.

Action needed:

Councils, please share this opportunity with your alumni and/or young adult volunteers and encourage them to complete the application by June 1.

If they are not currently a member of the Global Leadership Opportunities (GLO) pool, please have them submit their GLO application and endorsement with their Juliette Low Seminar application.

Selected applications will be sent to the WAGGGS review board in June for further selection.

Who else has gotten or should get this news:

This was shared with current Global Leadership Opportunity pool members. Please share with the relevant staff, including those who communicate with alums and volunteers.
